Dear Seniors,

2014 marks the beginning of a new book in our lives. It's cliché but it's true. In the past four years together, we have written one small part of our life stories. Starting on our first day of Freshman year our stories began with our sad attempts to adjust and make friends. Throughout our years here at Wachusett we have made a lot of good memories like prom, volleyball tournaments, football games and finally winning spirit week! We've also been able to come together as a community and go through some tough times. Not everything has been smooth sailing. We've been through traffic, long winters, rumors, and bad sports games but we've always come back stronger. We are ending this part of our stories as high school seniors and beginning a whole new book. The rest is still unwritten. Congratulations Class of 2014! We did it!
